

LEARN IMPERIAL VALLEY

Volunteer Literacy Tutor Job Description

Importance of Position: Public libraries in Southern California provide literacy services, at no cost to the participant, to English-speaking adults who want to improve basic reading and writing skills. As a volunteer tutor, you have the chance to help someone read for the first time by creating a learning environment that promotes self-esteem, allowing adult learners to participate more fully in their community.

Qualifications:

- Read and write comfortably in English
- Willing to learn and put into use a variety of teaching techniques*
- Have patience and empathy
- Have good listening skills
- Flexible and nonjudgmental
- Capable of maintaining confidentiality

*No previous tutoring or teaching experience necessary

Responsible to: LEARN Imperial Valley staff

Responsibilities:

- Sign a Tutor Agreement form
- Attend, participate in, and successfully complete tutor training (see below)
- Attend a “match meeting” where the tutor will be matched with a learner
- After 1-month, attend an evaluation of the match
- Keep records of tutoring sessions and lesson preparation time and turn them in as a Monthly Report
- Complete “Roles and Goals” forms with the learner
- Work one and one-half hours a week, on a regular basis, for a minimum of six months with a learner
- Use student-centered approaches to tutoring
- Keep records of the learner’s work and progress in a “Student Portfolio”
- Attend a 6-month tutor-learner evaluation, at which time the Student Portfolio will be reviewed

Training Provided: All tutors will be responsible for attending the following:

- A tutor/library orientation
- Two tutor training sessions and a combination of in-service workshops

Benefits of Volunteering: Tutors can help an adult to succeed with the following:

- Develop basic reading skills
- Improve spelling and writing
- Gain general knowledge
- Apply literacy skills to daily life
- Become more confident and independent

Time Commitment: 1-2 tutoring sessions per week lasting approximately 1 hour each in addition to lesson preparation time

Length of Commitment: Minimum 6 month commitment to the program is requested

Grounds for Termination:

- Failure to carry out responsibilities
- Breach of confidentiality

Contact Person: Monica Reyes, LEARN staff, (760) 336-2469

I have reviewed and understand the contents of this volunteer job description. I agree to the terms of the position and should I have question or need clarification of any of the above, I will contact a LEARN Imperial Valley staff member.

Signature

Date